KATA (hard forms)

Karate-ka will perform kata (shotokan, goju-ryu, allkampf-jitsu, taekwondo etc.)
Before starting karate-ka announces the name of the kata and the fighting style.

Evaluation:

Kata should be performed as a fight with appropriate strength, precise execution, right techniques and movements. Proper breathing, rhythm and viewing direction must be coordinated with the techniques. Stability, dynamics performance of techniques, fighting look and overall impression are also considered aspects.

3 referees judges with number of points

Competition system:

There will be 2 rounds (semifinal). In each round karate-ka will perform different kata. 8 competitors will be qualified to the final round with highest number of points.

The ranking will be determined by these criterias:

- 1) Points from the final round
- 2) Points from the semifinal round
- 3) Extra performance and another evaluation if the competitors have equal amount of points.
Will be carried out only in medals positions.

FULLCONTACT KUMITE:

Punches and kicks with full contact. Punches at chu-dan only. Kicks at ge-dan and chu-dan with full contact, kicks at jo-dan with light contact. Shin-karate rules version 01/2019.

Points:

Evaluation system: wazari (half point), Ippon (full point)

Wazari:

- It is applied if the competitor is not able to come back to fight within 3 sec.
- In children, youth and junior categories the kick at jo-dan must be performed effectively (fast, precisely and timing)

Ippon:

- It is applied if the competitor is not able to come back to fight within 3 sec.
- Two wazari = Ippon
- If the competitor is not able to fight due to the injury comes from martial engagement

If no wazari or Ippon were not applied to any competitors, the more active competitor can be announced as a winner. Or extra time can be set by referee. If extra time will not bring decision by referee then the competitor weighting 3 kg less than his opponent will be winner. If there is not required weight difference another extra time will be applied and referee must take decision after.

Forbidden techniques:

- punches at neck and head (JO-DAN)
- hits at groin
- hits at the back-bone
- kicks at the body on the ground
- direct kicks at knees
- holding, pushing, turning back to the opponent

Organizer , after negotiation with coaches is allowed to adjust rules as for the forbidden techniques.

Punishments:

Chui, Genten, Shikkaku – for forbidden techniques and impolite manners.

Protectors:

Each competitor must wear compulsory protectors – shin, instep, hands, jockstrap, helmet, teeth protector (not compulsory).
